The TANAGER-BELL

GRADE BASKETBALL

BAasket was HELD

The 7th and 8th grade basketball banquet was held April 13 at 6:30. The faculty, school board, county superintendent, Lessor Times and members of the basketball team and their parents were invited. Mr. Immel and Mr. Capcik, Fond du Lac, were the guest speakers. Mr. Fishtery and Mr. Austin gave tall talks. Mr. Fenslin, the coach, presented the basketball team a trophy for the evening was Mr. Dalh.

A short program was given. Martin Wintercheck and Joyce Redeker sang, "Now Is the Hour. Another song, "As I Lay in Croy," was sung by Ted and Clayton. H. Demura, Lorraine Yanden Berg and Marion Wintercheck and Joyce Redeker presented the basketball team. Toast was sung by Ted and Clayton Mowry. Refreshments were served.

Tri-Country teams have been playing baseball. This is the first year of baseball in the high school. The Tanager went to Waukesha when it was announced that the Tanager would not be ready until May 10. Because the proofs of the yearbook did not arrive as scheduled, the staff was unable to get them back to the printer in time.

Ready by May 10

Every person for an answer by May 1 were slightly dazed that week when it was announced that the Tanager would not be ready until May 10. Because the proofs of the engravings did not arrive as scheduled the staff was unable to get them back to the printer on schedule.

However, the Tanager went to Waukesha that week and, according to the printer, will be ready by May 10. The next is a small problem. The printer is still working on the book and should be ready enough to have enough time to autograph the book.

Alfred Westhuis, Kenosha, has said that the "big night" is over, everyone is kind of relaxing, everyone except the junior class, who are busy counting their money. However, with the other big events coming up, all is not over. Band Tournament, Basketball, Graduation no one will be leaving for a month or two.

Maria Keenan, Marbletown, and Evelyn Brown had dates for the prom but, we later found out they spent a quiet evening attending a show with their dates.

Interest among the girls was running high but few who were going to whom to the Prom. A great deal of it was directed toward Miss Kalb, who denied the rumors.

What's wrong with having the reputation? Miss Kalb, however, was surprised, however, to see so many come down the stairs with Miss Kalb.

You can't blame Reddy for being worried. After all, diseases are catching.

And Reddy doesn't want to get caught in the present epidemic of high costs. Every cost in the production and distribution of electricity is bigger. The cost of coal per ton is up 9% since 1938... the cost of labor is up 84%... materials and supplies are up 38%... and the total pay-out is up an average of 29% less than in 1938 for each kilowatt-hour of electricity sold for household use.

How can we hold the low price line in the face of these high costs?

Greatly reduce use — greater efficiency by ourselves has made it possible so far.

We have tightened our belts and are doing everything possible to hold the line — you can depend on us to do our best.
